

Edinburg Mill Streambank & Bioretention Project

Partners:

Town of Edinburg

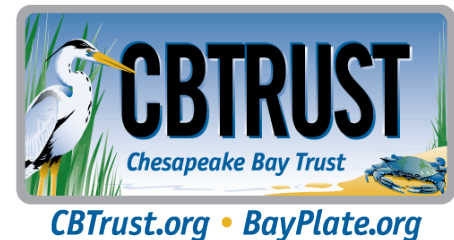

Friends of the North Fork of the Shenandoah River

Virginia Department of Game & Inland Fisheries

Bushong Contracting Corporation

Center for Watershed Protection

Chesapeake Bay Trust/ EPA Region 3

Photos: Louise Finger, David Hirschman, John Eckman

BEFORE

BEFORE

Streambank Repair

Building the Berm for Cells 1 & 2

A little excavating for Cell 3

Cell 1 & 2 Excavation

The Spillway & Underdrain

Choker Stone on Top of Underdrain Stone

Ready for the Biomix

Placing the Biomix

Biomix in Cells 1 & 2

Ready for Plants

A Hardworking Town Crew + Louise!

From the Mill Upstairs Window:
A little more breathing room for Stony Creek

A small portion of the native plants is laid out.

Designer David Hirschman and volunteer Alice Findler making progress.

Louise Finger, VDGIF restoration biologist, and volunteer Alice Findler working through the hundreds of plants.

Edinburg Mayor, Dan Harshman plants one of hundreds of sedges that will help keep Stony Creek cleaner.

